BOMBAY GAZETTE
Extraordinary,

SATURDAY MAY 27th, 1820.

The Syren, from Suez the 14th of April, and Mocha the 3d of May, anchored in the Harbour this Morning; she has brought the melancholy intelligence of the Death of Our Good Old King, who paid the debt of Nature on the 29th of January last. The Regent was Proclaimed shortly after as GEORGE the IV.

At the moment of his dissolution, there were present, besides the usual attendants, H. Royal Highness the Duke of York, Lord Henley, Lord Winchelsea, all the Physicians, and General Taylor.

The Duke of Kent, died on the 23d of January, of an inwart inflamation.

The Due de Berri, was assassinated some time in January, on his return from the Opera.

Some riots had again occurred in London and report says the Military had been called in. A number of the most active partizans had been arrested.

At two o'clock on Sunday (the 31st January) His Majesty George IV held is first Court, consisting of all the male branches of the Royal Family now in England, most of the Cabin Ministers, the great Officers of State, the Members of the Privy Council of the late King, and a numerous assemblage of the Nobility, Members of the two Houses of Parliament, the Lord Mayor of London, the Court of Aldermen, &c.

His present Majesty having declared himself successor to his late Father, our late highly venerated Sovereign, the Oaths of Allegiance, &c. were administered by Viscount Chetwynd, the Clerk of the Council, who afterwards took the same himself, which were administered by Mr. Bullen.

His Majesty afterwards commanded a Privy Council to be holden, when those present, of his late Majesty's Council, were re-sworn Privy Councillors to his present Majesty George the Fourth.

All the Cabinet Ministers resigned their credentials at the Office of the Secretary of State for the Home Department, when the King was pleased to re-appoint them. The Lord Chancellor without his robes resigned the Seals, His Royal Highness was pleased to return them.

THE HEALTH OF HIS MAJESTY GEORGE THE IV.

The here copy, was published yesterday of the health report indisposed :—

Digitized with financial assistance from the Government of Maharashtra
on 28 June, 2017

Digitized with financial assistance from the Government of Maharashtra
on 28 June, 2017